

Andrea Jean Music

Andrea Jean (DeVriendt) is an Indie singer/songwriter based out of Nashville. Born and raised in Madison, WI she studied musical theater in Chicago and in 2017 began performing gigs in the Chicago area. Since that time, she has been seen across the USA at world class venues include Davenports Cabaret in Chicago, Rockwood Music Hall and Brooklyn Music Kitchen in New York City, and The Listening Room in Tennessee.

Andrea Jean has been featured on Buzz Music, Nash News, We Write About Music and has played fairs and festivals including the Westerleigh Folk Festival on Staten Island and the Illinois State Fair.

Taking on influences of country, folk and pop she has been described as a "fresh, raw and soulful" Urban Cowgirl with smooth easy vocals and honest lyrics that are authentic and soul touching.

Andrea Jean released her first EP titled "parts of me" in January 2025. She released her first single Cowboy Man in 2022 and her second single City Girl Magic in 2023.
